

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 5558 to apply for a one-time extension of time to file Form 5500, Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan; Form 5500-EZ, Annual Return of One-Participant (Owners and Their Spouses) Retirement Plan; or Form 5330, Return of Excise Taxes Related to Employee Benefit Plans.

An extension of time to file does not extend the time to pay the tax due. Any tax due must be paid with this application. Additionally, interest is charged on taxes not paid by the due date even if an extension of time to file is granted.

Where To File

File Form 5558 with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Ogden, UT 84201-0027.

Private Delivery Services. You can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the “timely mailing treated as timely filing/paying” rule for tax returns and payments. If you use a private delivery service designated by the IRS (rather than the U.S. Postal Service) to send your return, the postmark date generally is the date the private delivery service records in its database or marks on the mailing label. The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of this date.

The following are designated private delivery services:

- DHL Express (DHL): DHL Same Day Service, DHL Next Day 10:30 am, DHL Next Day 12:00 pm, DHL Next Day 3:00 pm, and DHL 2nd Day Service.
- Federal Express (FedEx): FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, FedEx 2 Day, FedEx International Priority, and FedEx International First.

The plan sponsor listed on this application should be the same as the plan sponsor listed on the annual return/report filed for the plan.

Enter the nine-digit EIN assigned to the employer for all applications filed for Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ. Also enter the EIN for applications filed for Form 5330 (see Social Security Number (SSN) below for exceptions).

If the employer does not have an EIN, the employer must apply for one. An EIN can be applied for:

The online application process is not yet available for corporations with addresses in foreign countries or Puerto Rico.

C. Plan Information

Part II. Extension of Time to File Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ

Use Form 5558 to apply for a one-time extension of time to file Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ.

Exception: Form 5500 and Form 5500-EZ filers are automatically granted extensions of time to file until the extended due date of the federal income tax return of the employer (and are not required to file Form 5558) if all the following conditions are met: (1) the plan year and the employer’s tax year are the same; (2) the employer has been granted an extension of time to file its federal income tax return to a date later than the normal due date for filing the Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ; and (3) a photocopy of the IRS extension of time to file the federal income tax return is attached to the Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ. An extension granted under this exception cannot be extended further by filing a Form 5558 after the normal due date of the Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ.

An extension of time to file a Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ does not operate as an extension of time to file the PBGC Form 1.

How to file. In general, a separate Form 5558 is used for each return for which you are requesting an extension. However, if you are a single employer and all your plan years end on the same date, file only one Form 5558 to request an extension of time to file more than one Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ. Attach a photocopy of the completed extension request to your Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ.

When to file. To request an extension of time to file Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ, file Form 5558 on or before the return’s normal due date. The normal due date is the date the Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ would otherwise be due, without extension.

Applications for extension of time to file Form 5500 and Form 5500-EZ that are filed on or before the return/report’s normal due date on a properly completed Form 5558 will be automatically approved to the date that is not more than 2½ months after the return/report’s normal due date.

Approved copies of Form 5558, requesting an extension to file Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ, will not be returned to the filer from the IRS.

Line 1. Enter on line 1 the due date for which you are requesting to file Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ. This date should not be more than 2½ months after the normal due date of the return.

When using Form 5558 to request an extension of time to file Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ plan sponsors or plan administrators are not required to sign the form. If Form 5558 is timely filed and complete, you will be granted an additional 2½ months to file Form 5500 or Form 5500-EZ.

Part III. Extension of Time to File Form 5330

File one Form 5558 to request an extension of time to file Form 5330 for excise taxes with the same filing due date. For specific information on excise tax due dates, see the Instructions for Form 5330.

Note: Effective January 1, 2008, the IRS will no longer return stamped copies of the Form 5558 to filers who request an extension of time to file a Form 5330. Instead you will receive a computer generated notice to inform you if your extension is approved or denied. Because of this change, we ask you to attach a photocopy of this notice to your Form 5330.

When to file. To request an extension of time to file Form 5330, file Form 5558 in sufficient time for the Internal Revenue Service to consider and act on it before the return's normal due date.

The normal due date is the date the Form 5330 would otherwise be due, without extension.

Line 2. On line 2, enter the requested due date. If your application for extension of time to file Form 5330 is approved, you may be granted an extension of up to 6 months after the normal due date of Form 5330.

Line 2a. Indicate the Code section(s) for the excise tax you are requesting an extension.

Line 2b. Enter the amount of tax estimated to be due with Form 5330 and attach your payment to this form.

Make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury." Do not send cash. On all checks or money orders, write your name, Filer's identifying number (EIN or SSN), Plan number, Form 5330 Section number, and the tax year to which the payment applies.

If you changed your mailing address after you filed your last return, use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. You can get Form 8822 by calling 1-800-829-3676 or you can access the IRS website at www.irs.gov 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Line 3. The IRS will grant a reasonable extension of time (not to exceed 6 months) for filing Form 5330 if you file a timely application showing that you are unable to file Form 5330 because of circumstances beyond your control. Clearly describe these circumstances. Generally, an application will be considered on the basis of your own efforts to fulfill this filing responsibility, rather than the convenience of anyone providing help in preparing the return. However, consideration will be given to any circumstances that prevent your practitioner, for reasons beyond his or her control, from filing the return by the normal due date, and to circumstances in which you are unable to get needed professional help in spite of timely efforts to do so.

If we grant you an extension of time to file Form 5330 and later find that the statements made on this form are false or misleading, the extension will be null and void. A late filing penalty associated with the form for which you filed this extension will be charged.

Signature. If you are filing Form 5558 for an extension to file Form 5330, the form must be signed. The person who signs this form may be an employer, plan sponsor, plan administrator, a disqualified person required to file Form 5330, an attorney or certified public accountant qualified to practice before the IRS, a person enrolled to practice before the IRS, or a person holding a power of attorney.
